

Fine Arts Standards Team Meeting Agenda

Meeting 1: February 21, 2017

Grimes State Office Building, Room B100

Introductions/overview 9:00-9:45	Group introductions and background Dr. Wise's address to team Getting to know you icebreaker: "Drawing off the top of my head" Establishing norms: What are norms, what are their purposes? What makes a quorum? Parking Lot
Beginning with the end in mind 9:45-10:30 10:30-10:45 10:45-11:05	Vision activity; Why do you think standards are important/what do they contribute? What would characteristics of excellent standards be? Team Creation of Vision Statement Break "Coherence, Focus, and Specificity of Standards" Introduction to team Google site
Structure and development background of NCAS 11:05-11:30	Familiarize group with overall structure of the National Core Arts Standards
Anchor Standards 11:30-12:10	Anchor standards categorizing activity Overview of anchor standards, discuss how anchor standards unite all fine arts disciplines. Fist to five anchor standards consensus

Working lunch 12:10-1:00	Share resources on Google site for standards writing. Task groups to choose team leads.
Task groups breakout: Performance Standards Work 1:00-2:30 with breaks as needed 2:20-2:30 2:30-3:00	Break into 7 strand-specific groups. Use resources to examine strand content. Jot down any concerns about developmental appropriateness of Performance Standards, as well as questions/concerns about the structure of NCAS. Share out Wrap-up (homework, review, next meeting overview); within task groups, schedule Zoom meetings to be held before next meeting on 3/31